Form 990-EZ, Part I, Line 10 - The Music Stand provided Artist Support through Emergency Funds Assistance along with Young Artists Awards for achievements and continuing education

Form 990-EZ, Part III, Line (28-31) - The Music Stand provided emergency funding assistance to four professional artists families in need of rent assistance, bills assistance, groceries & basic living needs. The Music Stand awarded two young artists for their achievements in the arts ($175 per award) and provided $150 for two young artists continuing education opportunities assistance. In addition, The Music Stand Young Artists show, launched in 2025, provided an opportunity for young artists to curate a performance, showcase their craft on a professional stage, and broaden their fanbase. It featured four dynamic young artists and provided work for three supporting musicians and two crew members. The initiative also garnered new partnerships. The Music Stand launched an early childhood movement program to promote development, creativity, bonding, and community. The class combines dance, music, and creative expression. It is designed for stay-at-home parents, homeschoolers, grandparents, and guardians. The initiative served six families and garnered new partnerships with a professional dance artist/creator/instructor and a historic dance studio.
